

Dr. Michael Schreyer

Nationality: German

Personal details: Born in Cologne, Germany, on 9 August 1951

Education:

Diploma in economics, 1976, University of Cologne

Doctorate as Dr.rer.pol., 1983, Free University of Berlin

Academic and Political Career:

1977 – 1982 University Assistant at the Institute for Public Finance and Social Policy,
Free University of Berlin

1983 – 1987 Assistant to the Green group (DIE GRÜNEN) in the National Parliament

1987 – 1988 Researcher at the Institute for Economic Research (IFO), Munich

1989 – 1990 Minister of Urban Development and Environmental Protection to the regional government of Berlin (Senat)

1991 – 1999 Member of the regional Parliament of Berlin (Abgeordnetenhaus)

Member of the Committee on Budget

Member of various Committees of enquiry

Spokesperson of the Green group 1998 – 1999

1999 – 2004 Member of the European Commission, Brussels responsible for Budget and Anti-Fraud

Since Nov. 2004 lecturing at the Free University of Berlin;

Member of the advisory board for transatlantic relations and European affairs to the Heinrich Böll Foundation; Member of the advisory board to Transparency International Germany

Hobbies: reading, biking